Write –Up: Guest Lecture on “Brand You”

DATE: - 18th Dec, 2021 (Saturday) at 10.30 am.

The webinar on “Brand You” was conducted by Mr. Yogesh Sharma Global Head at Thomas cook Palladium. It was conducted on Zoom platform. 202 number of participants attended the webinar.

Branding yourself means to develop a unique professional identity and coherent message that sets you apart from others either in your company or in your industry. If you are a CEO or an entrepreneur, you may say, ‘I have enough on my plate by building and managing my company’s brand, much less my own.’ But branding yourself is just as important, if not more so. Regardless of your career status, you must commit to being the brand manager of your own personal brand.

In this session he explores few steps to branding yourself successfully.

- Determine your unique value proposition
- Find out how others see you
- Identify your goals
- Identify your target audience
- Pay attention to the details
- Update your resume
- Become a social networker
- Build your own website
- Blog
- Get published
- Go offline

- Tend to your marketing network
- Review your brand (and how you portray it) frequently

Further, in this session he gave Five Tips to Branding Yourself

1: Define your brand and become an expert. Take the time to do some soul searching and determine exactly who you are and what makes up your brand. Avoid establishing an expertise that's irrelevant to your mission, goals, and vision. You'll just be wasting your time.

2: Establish a presence. You're being Googled by friends, colleagues, and potential customers, so make sure your branded content is what people find when they Google your name. One way to do this is to build a basic online presence through your own website or blog.

3: Generate brand awareness through networking. You should be connecting with other young professionals in the accounting industry by using social networks and commenting on their blogs.

4: Remember the 3 Cs of branding. Clarity, consistency, constancy. Be clear in who you are and are not.

5: Get feedback from those who know you best—at work, at home, anywhere. The true measure of your brand is the reputation others hold of you in their hearts and minds. Notice how they introduce you to others. Ask them what your top brand attributes and core strengths are. If they can easily tell you, then you've succeeded in branding you.

The Webinar on "How to Study for Effective Learning" was conducted by Mr. Ramesh Mehta. It was conducted on Zoom platform. 205 number of participants attended the webinar.

Following points were discussed

Underlining -The act of underlining something means you are engaging with certain key aspects of the text.

Make Your Own Study Notes-When creating Notes, you can do it the traditional way with the good old' pen and paper or you can utilize online tools

Mind Mapping : Mind Maps are an extremely versatile tools. They can be used for brainstorming, outlining essays or study topics and for general exam preparation.

Mnemonic Rules: Mnemonics are especially useful when memorizing lists and sets. Mnemonics rules basically work by associating certain concepts with other concepts that are more familiar to us.

Flashcards : Using Flashcards is a particularly effective method of learning when trying to assimilate different facts, dates, formulas or vocabulary.

Case Studies: Case studies can help you visualize a theory and place it in a more familiar and realistic context. This is especially useful in business or law subjects. Organizing Your Study: Creating a study timetable gives you goals and a time in which to achieve them. Having a study timetable as you study is greatly motivational. Drawing: Many people find it easier to recall images rather than text that is why they are better able to memories concepts if they associate them with pictures or drawings.

Brainstorming: Brainstorming is a great way to expand every possible idea out of any topic. Just get a bunch of friends together and shoot the breeze, there are no wrong answers when brainstorming – just talk and capture the ideas, you can review afterward.
